

Springerle Cookie Class

Tuesday
October 17th

6:00 pm

Learn how to make Springerle Cookies from our friend and neighbor and expert cookie maker, Ruth Armknecht.

Springerle cookies are a traditional German biscuit which are made by pressing a mold onto rolled dough and allowing the impression to dry before baking. These are beautiful cookies, almost look to pretty to eat and make great gifts for the holidays!

This demonstration class is $25.00 per person, and reservations are required. Spaces are limited.
